OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

THOSE STALWART GUARDIANS of all the loot in town, i.e., the managers of the five local banks, Jack Payne, Don Kennedy, Oscar Sorenson, Arland Hatfield, and Bob Blonder, just may have to treat us with more respect in light of a recent experience we had in the rarified atmosphere of "high finance."

They will be interested to know that recently we were called upon by an investigator from some credit reference firm to verify the status of Joe Ridder, publisher of the San Jose Mercury-News.

ONCE WE found out that the naive investigator was following his unbelievable script which showed that, for the record, verification from a fellow publisher was needed, we were happy to oblige.

After all what difference does $50 million or so make? We are both newspaper publishers.

ANYWAY we gave Joe Ridder (and his family) the highest possible credit reference. We noted that they had always paid their subscription to The Campbell Press promptly.

And, as far as we knew, the whole Ridder family as well as the many papers they owned throughout the United States were equally as solvent, as, say, The Campbell Press or its publisher.

On sort of a relative basis, that is.

We are not sure whether our recommendation proved of any value to the record. We were a wee bit beyond our depth, so to speak. But, you must admit, that it is important that the local bankers know about it. We need to make some points with them.

It so happened that, coincidentally, Police Chief John Morgan and Sergeants John Butler and Jim Connelly were in the office of The Press when the interview took place.

We just thought we would throw that in to add authenticity to our story.

SOME TIME AGO we described in some detail in this column a new product called "Durex Anti-Bird Mesh" designed to keep birds off fruit plants.

LESTER LAFFERTY, a former publisher of this paper and now retired to Santa Cruz, is an avid reader of this column. In a note to us he raised some interesting questions about the "contraption", as he calls it.

He also presented a couple of unique problems.

INASMUCH AS weekend gardening activities are of the hit-or-miss system, we are in no position to help our old friend, Les.

But we thought you might enjoy his note: "Dear George"

"For your information, George, berries grow on bushes, unless like with blackberries there are runners. Grapes grow on vines.

"But be that as it may, I have a problem with a tall locust tree

Citizen groups draft recommendations

Committee may ask park expansion

Development and expansion of the city-owned Rincon Park into a 20-acre central park could be one of the recommendations that a citizens sub-committee will make to the 64-member Citizens Advisory Committee at the general session of the group scheduled for Thursday, June 1. Another sub-committee could also suggest that two libraries be constructed.

But it will take a majority vote of the entire membership to select the overall projects presented by the sub-committees and a two-thirds majority vote to approve the entire "package" that will be submitted to the City Council for a proposed capital improvement bond issue.

That was emphasized this week as the various citizen sub-committees, entrusted with the responsibility of recommending priorities for the different phases contained in the city's capital improvement program, began winding up their intensive six-week study of the program.

REPORTS

At a general session of the general committee held last week when progress reports were made by chairmen of the sub-committees, Don Hebard, chairman, and Jeanette Watson, vice-chairman, said that written committee reports, with priority designations, must be submitted by May 29. They will then be distributed to the entire membership prior to the June 1 meeting.

They also outlined the procedures for adopting the recommendations as approved by the rules committee.

At the general session Jack Healey, chairman of the city's planning commission, commended the members of the citizens group for their dedicated service to the city and the spirit engendered by them.

He added that the city administration was indebted to them for their efforts on behalf of the city and urged that they let nothing come between them and the end result of their work.

PARKS

The progress report on the parks phase of the capital improvement program was made by Henry Cary, of 113 N. 2nd St., sub-committee chairman.

Cary explained that although his group had not yet established their final priorities, the thinking of the group appeared to be that a central park should be provided.

He added that the committee felt that the seven-acre city-owned

First time in town

Legislative forum draws sparse crowd

Only 54 people were in the audience Friday night when the four state legislators representing this area appeared at the first open forum ever staged in this community.

The forum was sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce under the direction of the congressional action committee, headed by Arland Hatfield, who presided.

State Senator Al Alquist opened the forum with a short talk on his activities in the legislature. He was followed by his fellow legislators, State Senator Clark Bradley and Assemblymen Earle Crandall and John Vasconcellos.

After the legislators had completed their talks, the meeting was converted into a question-and-answer session. Members of the audience listed questions which were directed to the legislators concerned.

Despite the small audience, there were more questions submitted to the legislators than there was time to answer them.

The audience and the law-makers, however, adjourned to the music room where informal discussions on many issues continued.

Parts of the Campbell community, because of the manner in which the assembly and senatorial lines are drawn, lie within all four districts.

Thus all four legislators present, actually are "representing" this area, a position that is virtually unique in the county.

It was for that reason that Chamber of Commerce officials had been enthusiastic about being able to schedule the legislators.

They believed that the citizens would appreciate the opportunity of hearing directly from their legislators on

Beats engineer's estimate

Low bid of $80,975 gets contract for widening Winchester Blvd.

By submitting a low bid of $80,975.10, almost $15,000 below the engineer's estimate for the job, the A. J. Raisch Co., on Monday night awarded the contract by the City Council for the widening of Winchester Blvd. on the east side from Sanford to the city limits.

The City Council, however, decided to wait until the next year's fiscal budget was under study before calling for bids for the long-awaited shop building at the corporation yard.

The city had hoped to ask for bids on this job, estimated to cost approximately $89,500, and then modify the contract to fit the city's pocketbook.

But City Manager Bob Stephens recommended that the City Council wait until more information was available on the city's fiscal picture at the end of the year.

Stephens also warned the council that the city again faced a "tight budget" for the next year and he expressed concern as to whether the shop building could be constructed on a "pay-as-you-go" basis as planned or whether it should be considered as part of the proposed capital improvement bond issue to expedite its construction.

Although pleased with the construction contract for Winchester Blvd., Bill Wren, public works director, cautioned the City Council that "extra" costs for the overall project, including acquisitions of property and undergrounding

In good old summer time

Apparently there isn't going to be any Spring this year.

Summer seems to have already arrived.

That was clearly evident last Sunday when residents of the area headed for recreational areas near and far.

Although the county park in Campbell that is being developed off Camden Ave. with access from Dell to the percolation pond, is far from being completed, hundreds last Sunday flocked to the area.

The accompanying pictures give some indication how popular that spot will be when the recreational facilities are completed, if its use at present can be used as any criteria.

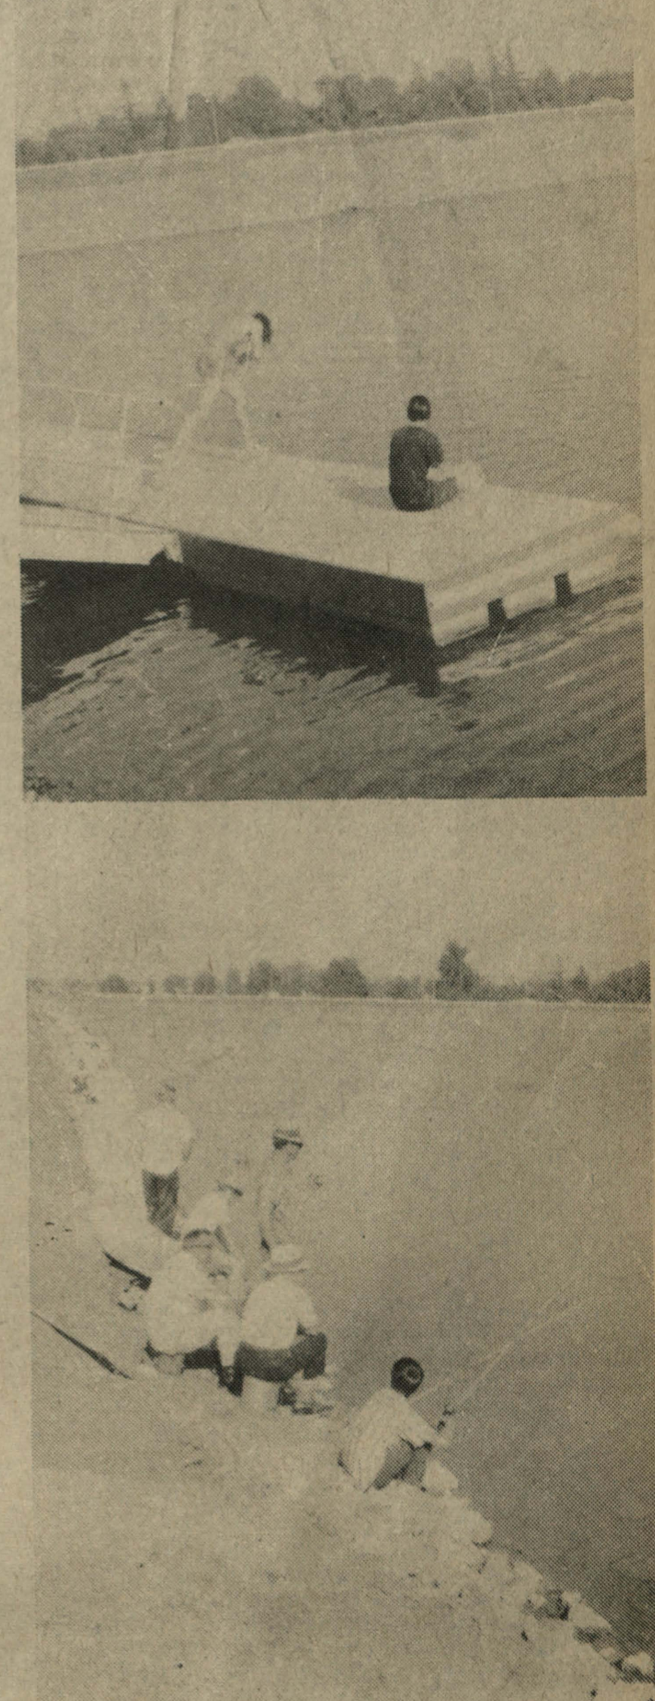
County park and recreation officials will probably take a dim view of the pond being used for swimming in the future but many were taking dips on Sunday. Apparently there is no place yet to post "no swimming" signs.

No boats were launched from the floating wharf that was in place. But it made a good place to dive from or on which to sun bathe.

The banks were also lined with fishermen whose luck (poor) seemed to be the equalizer for all the ages represented.

One fishermen commented that with the one he was about to catch and two more he hoped for, he would have a total of three. Others suggested that they hadn't been that lucky.

But they all seemed to be enjoying the spot, even in its primitive state.



Editorial

Lack of concern

Admittedly the sparse attendance last Friday night at the first state legislative forum ever held in this community was disappointing to the Chamber of Commerce officials, sponsors of the program.

It was also embarrassing in a sense, for considerable planning and organization was necessary to make the arrangements so that all four state legislators representing this area, two state senators and two assemblymen, could be present.

These people who did not attend the forum are the losers, for it was a unique opportunity to learn what was going on in Sacramento directly from our representatives.

While we agree that the night (Friday) was a "bad one" and the weather was ideal for outdoor activities, the fact remains that what our legislators are doing in the state capitol should be and is important to all citizens of the community.

In our opinion it was worth a few hours of time from recreational or other activities, for these men in Sacramento have been entrusted with massive responsibilities that should concern all of us.

We appreciate the efforts made by State Senators Al Alquist and Clark Bradley and Assemblymen Earle Crandall and John Vasconcellos to arrange their busy schedule to appear in Campbell.

We know they were as disappointed as were the local civic leaders by the poor response of the local citizenry. Only 54 people were in the audience when the meeting was called, a minute representation of a city that has a population of more than 21,000.

If we sound discouraged and disappointed about this apathy of the people on matters so vital to them, it is because we are.

In addition to being discouraged and disappointed, we are also worried.

If the citizens of this community are apparently so uninterested in what their legislators are doing, it seems to us that the legislators themselves must in turn become uninterested in determining what the people themselves desire in legislation.

True, we realize that the people themselves speak with their ballots on election day and an elective official, therefore, is dependent on what the people do in the voting booths.

But considerable time elapses between elections. Just voting people into office to us does not seem enough. Literally thousands of laws flow under the legislative bridge between elections.

It seems to us that it is extremely important to be interested in how the legislators who have been named at the polls conduct themselves legislatively speaking.

No law-maker can possibly satisfy all the electorate, for there are basic differences in philosophy among us all which makes for a strong two-party system of government which has been the bulwark of our country for so long.

And our particular area is unique in having its legislators equally divided, basically, on partisan philosophy.

As you know our community is so peculiarly divided by the legislative district boundary lines that Campbell citizens, to stretch the point a bit, are actually represented by two state senators and two assemblymen.

And as it also happens, Senator Bradley is a Republican; Senator Alquist, a Democrat. Assemblyman Crandall is a Republican; Assemblyman Vasconcellos a Democrat.

Each of their districts extend into Campbell.

Of course, it might be more logical, if all Campbell was in the same senatorial and assembly district.

You might say it now spreads our representation a trifle thing. But very few cities of this size can boast of having four state legislators representing them and divided down the middle on party lines.

We suppose then that this novel distribution of our state legislative strength has been one of the factors we considered so important when we so enthusiastically endorsed a forum program that would involve all four of our state legislators.

As we said, citizens in very few communities of our size can boast of being able to vote for two senators and two assemblymen and, at the same time, take their choice in the political philosophy of the two-party system.

We realize, of course, that the citizens of Campbell don't vote for all four on the same ballot. We are speaking of our community as a whole.

We realize, as an old pro newspaperman, that we undoubtedly attach more importance than does the average person to the functions of a state legislator and how imperative it is, (in our opinion) for a legislator to get the "feel" of the electorate in order to do a proper job.

Admittedly we may lose our perspective. We have different values.

Just because we think it is important that the electorate should be concerned over how their representatives are representing them, apparently it does not necessarily follow that the bulk of the citizens have to be concerned about it.

But we also must admit that we are concerned over this lack of concern.

which overshadows my carport. The carport has a tin roof. There are many gardens on the hill with pyracanthas, cotoneasters, English Holly and other seed berries.

"So when Spring arrives with the robins and cedar waxwings, they convene on Beach Hill, strip the bushes of berries, fly to my locust tree, munch the meaty stuff from the berries and drop the seeds on my carport roof.

"It sounds like hail and it lasts for two or three days. Then with the first Spring rain, the seeds wash to the ground and sprout.

"You might try to find out from the manufacturer of the contraption mentioned in your column, how my problem can be solved.

"If so, I'd be much obliged.

Les Lafferty."

Dear Les: We wish we could help you out but, as nearly as we can figure it out, your problem is for the birds.

-o-

QUITE NATURALLY after that comment on the birds, we should discuss bees.

Last week a migrant swarm of bees descended on one of the trees on Campbell Ave. that were recently placed there as a community project of the Rotary Club.

JIM ELAM, an employee of the public works department who has had considerable experience with bees in the past, was called upon to remove the swarm.

The ease in which he accomplished his mission is deserving of note, especially to those of us who think when you see one bee you have seen 'em all.

They all look alike to us and their stings always seem about the same.

Jim improvised a hive from a cardboard box and somehow directed the queen bee into it. The rest of the swarm eventually followed the lady bee into the box which was then carted off to the corporation yard. A bee-raiser in the area subsequently gained a hive.

We learned from Jim that this was the usual procedure. Apparently bees take off from one overcrowded hive with an extra queen and land several miles from where they started. He figures there were about 4500 bees in the group, all under the queen's domination.

As it appears it would be mighty hard to brand a bee, so when a swarm takes off, that's it. They are just gone. Quite different apparently from cattle rustling and round-ups.

Jim identified the variety as "Italian Yellow" We wouldn't know how he made his identification. We didn't get that close.

But as an afterthought to this bee-escapade, we note that the city recently adopted an ordinance regulating the control of bees within the city.

We actually believe that the swarm that descended on Campbell Ave. was in violation of the city ordinance.

But that queen bee couldn't have been so darned smart.

Apparently she couldn't read.

Park expansion

park site on Rincon Ave., next to the Campbell Elementary School could be developed from open space that was available in the vicinity.

Cary said that a great deal of work has been done on parks, including a survey of the citizens some time ago plus a recent study by professionals. All this information, he pointed out, had been available to his unit.

The park chairman added also that two stages of development were being considered: (1) the acquisition of additional land and (2) the extensive development of the site.

Cary also mentioned that the enlargement of Campbell Park had been discussed. The preliminary cost figures for the park phase ranged to about $1,150,000 on a six-year plan for all parks.

STREETS

In the report on the street sub-committee, Ralph Weymouth, 243 W. Rincon, said that his group had not yet made any definite recommendations but that indications were that his group concurred with the six-year program as adopted by the city.

He explained also that the committee had considered a number of questions, such as: Should bond money be used downtown? How would we support this use? Should neighborhood streets be improve? Should signals be installed? Should signals be up-dated? Should the expressway-Rincon overcrossing be constructed? Should Rincon Ave. on the east side receive attention and should it go all the way through?

He concluded his report by again emphasizing that his committee planned to submit some type of logical and reasonable priority.

FACILITIES

In the absence of Norman Paul, 44 W. El Caminito, chairman of the public facilities sub-committee, Dick Straw, of Palo Santo, executive board member serving on the sub-committee, reported that the committee had reached a four-pronged conclusion.

He said that this included: (1) that a combined city administration-police building be constructed within the civic center area; the exact size to be determined; (2) that the facility should be approximately 19,000 square feet with 1 1/2-floors and basement; (3) that construction cost should be approximately $30 per square foot and (4) the site selected should be large enough to accommodate a library.

Straw added that committee had not yet selected the priority projects.

TWO LIBRARIES

Members of the general committee present expressed considerable interest in the recommendation of the sub-committee on library facilities, as it had been indicated that the construction of two libraries was being considered. Both, of course, would still be part of the county library system.

It had been suggested in the committee study that one library building could be located in downtown Campbell and the other in the western or south portion of the city.

The basis for this was that studies had indicated that the heaviest use of libraries comes from a three-quarter mile radius of libraries. George Ferrier, county librarian, who has been acting as consultant for the committee study, discussed the difference between regional and libraries for neighborhood centers.

FINANCE

The report of Dale Scott, of 264 Radford Dr., chairman of the finance sub-committee, two immediate goals were emphasized: (1) to increase interest of private investment in Campbell and (2) to encourage programs financed by bonds, and pay-as-you-go financing which will offer a visual image to Campbell.

Scott explained that this approach would increase assessed valuation and allow the plowing back of some of these dollars into the community.

Scott added that there was a possibility that five different proposals might be placed before the electorate.

Clinic burglary

Richard C. Weldon, operator of the Blossom Valley Animal Clinic, 1657 S. Bascom Ave., reported burglars entered his veterinary hospital over the weekend and took $67.50 in cash as well as a roll of stamps and cigarettes.

The thief apparently entered through a rear window, using a screw driver to pry off the window screen and cranking the window open.

some utilities, would bring the total expenditure for overall job to approximately $133,000.

Wren added, however, that this overall cost would be cut a little by financial contributions made by various property owners for improvements on the street, based on the city's policy in similar instances in the past.

One of the major additional costs, Wren pointed out, was the $20,500 outlay for the entire Ken Norton property at Winchester and Alice. When the land needed for the widening of the street is taken from this property, the lot will be so substandard in size that its use would be limited. The city has decided it is more practical to purchase the entire parcel and forego litigation and severance charges.

Wren reported that seven contractors had bid on the Winchester project, with six of them submitting bids below the engineer's estimate. The bids ranged from Raisch's low bid of $80,975.10 to a high of $96,974.60, a difference of almost $16,000 in the spread. There was a difference of $5496 between the first and second low bidders.

All bidders showed that the category of "asphalt concrete" was the major cost. The successful bidder figured the cost for this item at $17,496.75 compared to the engineer's estimate of $22,760 and also a high of $22,760 by one of the bidders.

The sidewalk cost was shown to be $10,432.80 and the aggregate base at $11,781. But the signal system revision will cost $6000 compared to the engineer's estimate of $3700.

It was estimated the project will be completed by late summer.

DISTRIBUTE "AWAKE"

Sam Pavone, presiding minister of one of the Campbell congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses, announces that members in Campbell will be given priority during the next weeks to the work of distributing the latest issue of "Awake" magazine.

what was taking place in Sacramento, legislatively speaking.

In addition, C. of C. officials pointed out, that the four legislators were divided equally along party lines. Senator Bradley and Assemblyman Crandall are Republicans and Senator Alquist and Assemblyman Vasconcellos are Democrats.

During the forum, this difference in philosophy was evident as the legislators presented their viewpoints on various issues before the legislature.

Chamber of Commerce officials voiced disappointment in the poor response by the electorate. They recognized, however, that the warm weather and having it on Friday night may have been factors in keeping the audience so small.

Local fireman revives small heart patient

Jerry Gomes, Campbell Fire Department Battalion Chief in charge of training, was called upon May 17 to demonstrate his training in the most crucial test of all--that of actually saving a life.

The local fire department rescue squad was called last Wednesday to the Theo. H. Stone residence at 1444 Kim Court where two and a half year old Billy Stone had almost lost his fight for life.

A heart patient, Billy was revived by cardiac massage administered by Gomes before being transferred to the Stanford Memorial Hospital where he is still under intensive care.

If we don't report the weather, then what's our weather bureau for?

Our weather bureau is for your comfort.

Most of your natural gas comes through pipelines reaching 1500 miles to Canada and Texas. And because the gas travels at 12 miles an hour, we have to know your daily requirements well in advance. A drop of just one degree in temperature means as much as 55 million more cubic feet of gas will be needed—and fast.

That's what our weather reports and forecasts are for. To make sure you and your family have all the natural gas you need—in any weather.

And if bad weather does show up, it also lets us alert our electric facilities, so power crews are standing by—ready to meet the emergencies inevitably caused by storms.

Our weather bureau forecast for you is always the same: continued comfort. Plenty of light, heat and hot water. Reliable service at all times.

Junior garden club wins awards

The Camp Belles Junior Garden club won several awards at the annual state convention of California Garden Clubs, Inc., held at El Rancho Tropicana in Santa Rosa recently. Mrs. Joseph P. Aversente, Santa Clara Valley chairman for Junior Gardeners, accepted the awards for the Juniors.

Cash awards went to Mary Kate Kahler, who took first place for her essay on John Muir and a book on sea shells. Mary Lantz, also won first place for her scrap book on Special Education. Annette Gonzalas was a second place winner for her scrap book on wild flowers and horticulture. Mary Rose Seeback was a winner for her note book on wild flowers.

Those receiving certificates of award for scrap books were Karen Bamberg, Colleen McCarthy and Mary Kay Lee. The Juniors also received a certificate award for their Junior Achievement Book.

The Santa Clara Valley District Junior Gardeners, consisting of nine clubs and one high school unit, received a first prize for their first standard flower show. The Camp Belles Junior Gardeners sent a beautiful bouquet of roses to Mrs. Minnie Snyder for her birthday. Mrs. Snyder is a patient at Beverly Manor Convalescent Hospital where she is recuperating from a recent fall.

Stolen Cars Recovered

NEW YORK—Although more than 90 per cent of all automobiles stolen in the United States are recovered, according to the Insurance Information Institute, about 30 per cent of the recovered cars have been damaged or stripped of parts — many to the extent that they represent total losses.

Campbell Garden Club honors 17 year member

Mrs. Henry Blohm was named "Mother of the Year" at the Campbell Garden Club meeting that also featured an illustrated talk by City Planner, Richard Hogan. Entertainment was provided by Tom Marotti, 11-year old son of one of the members of the club.

Mrs. Blohm was honored for her outstanding record as an active and helpful member of the Campbell Garden Club since 1950. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles L. Lisenby, and niece, Mrs. Lance Mortensen, both of Campbell, were guests for the occasion which was a surprise for Mrs. Blohm.

The Campbell Garden Club has had four previous "Mothers of the Year" including Mmes. Monica Parr, Marge Stokes, Mary Triguiero and Florence Rohde, all of whom were present at this happy occasion.

"Before and After" was the title of Hogan's address to the club, showing the marks of progress during recent years. The colored slides spoke eloquently for themselves of some of the jarring ugliness brought by recent developments. To the club members, whose aim is to beautify their community, the sights of the now sterile trench where the Los Gatos Creek once wended its way along the "front door to Campbell" were enough to cause consternation.

Mrs. John Jackson, as one of her first duties since taking office as president, had the pleasure of receiving the plaque awarded to Campbell Garden Club for second place in the state in Civic Improvement. It was presented first at the California Garden Clubs convention last week to Mrs. James Hartman, Civic Beautification chairman for the club during the past year, for the Hamilton Avenue median planting.

The state organization's highest award for the most attractive street planting was also presented to Mrs. Jackson by Mrs. Frank Stapleton, Director of the Santa Clara Valley District of California Garden Clubs.

A blue ribbon for the highest honors in California for Junior Garden Club activities had been awarded to Mrs. Joseph Aversente for her Junior Garden Clubs sponsored by Campbell.

El Paradiso Council has installation

Robert Culp, principal of Campbell High School, was presented an honorary life membership by El Paradiso PTA Council at their installation luncheon held recently at La Hacienda Restaurant in Saratoga. The PTA scholarship will be given in his name for his outstanding work with youth in the community this past year.

PTA presidents from Burbank, Moreland, Campbell Elementary and Campbell High School District were present, as well as other community leaders.

Artists prepare for historical society exhibit

West Valley Historical Society of Campbell is sponsoring its first art exhibit. Artists enrolled in the Campbell Adult Education art classes have been fortunate the past two weeks in having the opportunity to paint some of the articles which have been on exhibit in the Campbell Museum, located in the Woman's Club building on Campbell Avenue.

The art exhibit, open to all artists, will be held in Campbell in June and pictures are to be brought to the Community Gallery, 65 Rincon Ave., June 3, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

All pictures will be exhibited throughout Campbell. Judges will decide ribbon and cash awards. Artists having questions may call Regina Greenleaf, 378-3745.

DAYS OF YESTERDAY--Mrs. Judy Howland, Campbell Adult Education teacher, nostalgically models an old-fashioned gown as she uses the old washtub and set wringer, one of the articles from the Campbell Museum being painted by artists from her class in preparation for the June art exhibit sponsored by the West Valley Historical Society of Campbell.

Birthday and wedding are celebrated

A group of about 40 friends of the William Dixon Sapp family gathered at their home at 916 Bucknam Avenue Saturday night to celebrate Bill's birthday. The party was also the occasion to introduce their new son-in-law William Arthur Manatt. Manatt and their daughter, Susan Sapp, were married in Santa Cruz on April 3. Champagne punch and cake was served from a beautifully decorated buffet table.

Susan is a graduate of Campbell High School and attended San Jose State College. Manatt will receive his B.A. from San Jose State College in June. They are making their home in San Jose.

GRANGE BREAKFAST

Orchard City Grange No. 333 will hold its regular monthly breakfast on Sunday, May 28, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Grange Hall, 109 N. First St., Campbell.

New school for handicapped

The new Chandler Tripp School for the county's physically handicapped children was dedicated Wednesday (May 24). The school is located at 780 Thornton Way off Moorpark Ave. in San Jose. The $1,200,000 building can accommodate 130 students in eight classrooms and 18 therapy areas.

The teaching faculty and therapy staff of 60 operate the facility for students ranging in age from three to 21 years. In addition, the staff can care for some 200 outpatients. The building is air-conditioned and has a fire alarm system integrated with the County Communications Center.

Dr. C. R. Timpany, county superintendent of schools, made the welcoming address and the Rev. Shirley T. Sherrill of the Cambrian Park Methodist Church gave the invocation. Dr. O.E. Byrd, executive head of the Health Education Department of Stanford University was the guest speaker. His subject was "Medicine and Education Working Together." The Elvira Castro Junior High School Band of the Moreland School District, presented musical selections and flower arrangements were courtesy of the Campbell Garden Club.

The institution was named for a well-known and beloved young man who had earned his way through San Jose State College despite being confined to a wheelchair by a physical handicap. Chandler died in August, 1949.

Senior Sneak Day time is here ; Campbell Junior Prom Friday

Warrior World

by RUSS LONG

The day that everyone has been waiting for arrives this Friday. That afternoon the entire student body will be given a "Small Taste of Freedom".

Students will be allowed to dress down in shorts, sweatshirts and other assorted "forbidden" garb. Fifth and sixth periods will be replaced by water-balloon fights, wheelbarrow races and tug-o-wars. An old car is being bought from a wrecker and students will be charged ten cents a whack with a sledge hammer, allowing them to take out their frustrations on the old car.

STOF DAY

Each class will compete for spirit and present their prince and princess to the school. The class with the largest amount of points, from the two Sweep Weeks and STOF Day, will win, and their prince and princess will be crowned King and Queen of STOF Day.

In accordance with STOF Day, this week is another Sweep Week. Each class will take a turn keeping the campus clean, with the points amassed going toward STOF Day. Freshmen started the week Monday, Wednesday is Junior's turn, and Thursday the Seniors take over.

ties of STOF Day, Block "W" and Girl's Sports will sponsor a sock hop in the gym, from 8 to 11 p.m. The band chosen to provide entertainment is The Inland Whale. Dress will be keeping with the STOF Day theme.

SNEAK DAY

Yesterday the campus seemed somewhat empty to all the underclassmen. Mainly because the seniors decided, along with the administration, that Wednesday would be a good day for Senior Sneak Day. Seniors met at Westgate between 8:30 and 9 in the morning, boarded buses, and spent the day in Santa Cruz. Each senior was given a strip of tickets to the rides on the Boardwalk, food was kept in constant supply all day, and everybody had a good time, albeit a might sunburned upon returning home.

WE ARE FINE MUSICIANS--Some of the Rolling Hills School band, orchestra and choir members, pause in a rehearsal of their annual Spring Concert which they will present May 25, at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Blackford to honor sports participants

Block letters and certificates of merit will be awarded to the boys who have participated in spring sports at Blackford High School Thursday evening, May 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafetorium.

Guest speaker will be George Haines, Santa Clara Swim Club Coach Haines is nationally known as the former head coach of the U.S. Olympic Women's Swim Team in 1960. He was also assistant coach for the men's Olympic Swim Team in 1964.

Carroll Williams, former Blackford varsity basketball coach, now freshman basketball coach at the University of Santa Clara, will be master of ceremonies.

Parents of boys are invited to attend the evening. Dessert will be served.

Push cart relays at Del Mar High School on Friday, May 26

The annual Push Cart Relays will be held at Del Mar High School in the Campbell Union High School District on Friday, May 26, with inspection and time trials set for Wednesday, May 24.

George Miskulin, principal said that in the past, cars have been of all sizes, shapes, colors and have shown varying degrees of engineering skill.

Mandatory inspection will be made to determine that all cars are safe, and vehicles will be arranged in heats according to ability displayed at the time trials, he said.

A special race may be run for girls if there are sufficient entries, Miskulin said.

Rules require that all carts must have a minimun of three weight-bearing wheels, one pusher and one rider, who must also steer.

Also, each cart must be plainly identified with a printed name, attached in some permanent manner to the cart. The total race is 440 yards, run as follows:

1). At the end of 110 yards, the pusher and the driver change places, within an exchange zone.

2). At 220 yards, an entire new team must take over while the cart is fully stopped.

3). At 300 yards, the second team must change places within the exchange zone, after which they proceed to finish the race.

Spring concert Thursday at Rolling Hills

Rolling Hills School will present its annual spring concert, Thursday, May 25, at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium. Approximately 250 Rolling Hills students will participate.

There will be musical selections by the Junior High Band, orchestra and choir; and selections by the Sixth Grade orchestra and choir.

Rolling Hills musical groups have participated in competitive music festivals throughout the year. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

College offers many special scholarships

More than $6,000 in scholarships are available to West Valley College students, according to Jerry H. Girdner, dean of Student Personnel Services.

The total went over the $6,000 mark recently with the donation by the West Valley Kiwanis Club for four $100 scholarships for vocational-technical student. Girdner said. These scholarships will be available for Westmont and Blackford High School graduates.

Another $1,000 in scholarships has been received from Margarette V. Chase, 559 N. Central Ave., Campbell, for $100 award each year to male business students.

The Associated Student Body is likewise offering 13 $100 scholarships, and other awards come from:

Pan American Round Table; F. Tom Perry Memorial; Jack Fischer Memorial (Westmont graduate); Four anonymous donors; including one for an architectural student; Kiwanis of Cambrian Park (needy student); Yvone Bidwell Memorial; Campbell Rotary; West Valley College Faculty Women & Wives; San Jose Mercury News; American Business Women's Association; West Valley College Home Economics Club; Bank of America; Kiwanis Club of West San Jose; Saratoga Kiwanis Club; Soroptimist Club of San Jose; West Valley Faculty; Santa Clara County Education Office Employees Association; J. Winter Smith; West Valley College Social Science Division; Sunnyvale Business and Professional Women's Club; Los Gatos-Saratoga Community Hospital Medical Staff (10), and the California Scholarship Federation.

Girdner emphasized that scholarships are in most cases based on either qualification or need.

A $100 scholarship, he points out, takes care of a student's needs for books, supplies and student body activity card, at the junior college level.

West Valley College is also approved for Economic Opportunity Grants, the Work Study Program, and for the National loan programs.

12 Camden high school students awarded "working" scholarships

A total of 12 Camden High School students have been awarded working scholarships for the summer of 1967.

Louie Gasper, a junior, will represent Camden at this year's "Summer Conference for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes," at Southern Oregon College in Ashland, Oregon. The Cambrian Park Kiwanis will pay Louie's expenses for the Aug. 20-25 event.

Allan Meyer has been selected to attend the National Science Foundation Summer Chemistry and Physics Program at San Jose State College this summer. Allan was one of 50 students chosen to participate in the six-week program.

Janis Aby, a junior, was awarded one of some 60 scholarships to attend the University of California, Davis Campus, seven week summer session in agricultural sciences.

The National Science Foundation Cooperative College-School Program will afford a unique opportunity for nine Camden students. A special class in Economics at San Jose State College will be attended by David Swenson, Claire Gray, Stephen Paselk, Steve Hinze, George Marshall, Stacee McDaniel, Barbara Castro, Bill Stiele and Lois Nakamura.

Thief smashes store window

A thief, using a half-gallon wine jug, smashed the front glass window of Big Boy Market, 629 Hacienda Ave. and entered the store after closing hours on Saturday, May 20.

Taken were five bottles of "Vin Rose" and an undetermined amount of pastries, according to the Campbell Police.

Students can sign early for evening classes

Extended day or evening students planning to attend West Valley College in the Fall can get early priorities for registrations and classes if they follow a new procedure outlined by Nero Pruitt, Dean of Extended Day and Summer Sessions, at the college.

Pruitt said students should report to the Student Personnel Center during this evening (Wednesday) or Thursday, May 25, and fill out fact sheets which are necessary to prior registration in August. Pruitt estimates it takes less than 30 minutes to fill out the necessary forms.

Registration will be conducted Aug. 21- 24 and Aug. 28-31.

Although it is not mandatory to report during the preliminary signup period in May, this procedure will give students registration priority and assure them of a greater variety of class offerings when they return to complete registration in August.

Students who do not live in the West Valley College district but plan to attend classes at the West Valley College must present releases from their districts at the time of registration, Aug. 21. Students who live out of State and are planning to attend West Valley College must be prepared to pay a tuition rate of $11 per unit.

Campbell Crier

by DAVE TURNER

Music by Johnny Vaughn will create the atmosphere as formally attired Campbell students and their guests turn on for "Moonlight Memories" at the 1967 Junior Prom. The junior class officers have been working for several weeks to assemble a lavish array of decorations that will set a romantic atmosphere at the school cafeteria where the dance will be held. Date is this Friday, time is 9 'til midnight.

ELECTIONS

Returns have been tallied in last weeks final elections for cheerleaders and Student Council members and the names of the winners have been posted. Leading yells for the varsity teams next year will be Nan Hefte, Alice Holtorf, Debbie Lowe, Lorretta Magnasco, and Leesa Nickeson. Determined to stir things up for the Soph-Frosh will be Kay Davis, Mary Nelson and Theresa Wheeler.

Withdrawing his name from the ballot again as a presidential candidate, Rocky Fagundes left that position wide open for occupancy by Mason Sacks. The four newly elected Councilmen are John Brydon, Don Fox, Tim Sapp and Eric Washington. (Tim was recently named to represent Campbell at Boys' State in Sacramento this summer.)

Coming up soon, no one knows exactly when, is the annual Senior Sneak Day. On this day, the whole senior class sneaks off, via school buses, to Santa Cruz for a day in the sun at the beach along the boardwalk. Students are provided with a strip of tickets for free rides and are given all the food they can eat. The actual date of all this fun is withheld from the seniors until the day before it is to occur.

SPORTS

There's a lot of tension in the sports world of Campbell this week as the Buccaneers square off with strong opponents in tennis and varsity baseball in tilts which will have a lot to do with determining the championships in their respective leagues. After defeating Blackford and Del Mar last week, the tennis team still had but one loss, that one to Leigh whom they faced again last night on the home courts. Results of that action were unavailable at presstime. In the event that the tennis team won that match, they will have to make up some matches that were rained out earlier in the year to retain a share of the championship.

The Soph-Frosh baseball team outslugged Westmont last week 15 to 7 to finish their season around the middle of the league with a 3 wins, 4 losses record. Meanwhile, their big brother, the varsity was whipping Blackford and Del Mar to set the stage for this Thursday's contest against Camden. If the Bucs were able to overcome the lowly Leigh Longhorns last night, this Thursday's home game could mean an undisputed league title for the winning team. Game time is 3:30 p.m. for the biggest one of the year.

MURALS

It contains pictures, locks of hair, report cards and even a "baby tooth". The book is the childhood history of Hazel Jean Hanna. Unable to locate the name in the telephone directory, Mrs. Booth has requested The Campbell Press to publicize the information in order to locate the owner.

New Books at the CAMPBELL LIBRARY

R.F.K., THE MAN WHO WOULD BE PRESIDENT by Ralph De Toledano.

This is the inside story, by one of Washington's most knowledgeable reporters, on Robert Francis Kennedy, heir apparent to the Kennedy Dynasty, candidate for the Presidency, and undeniably the most controversial man in America today. For all the glitter surrounding him, few Americans know what Bobby Kennedy is really like, and how he exercises his "political muscle."

THE HOUSE OF TOMORROW, by Jean Thompson

Six years ago the author spent several months in a Salvation Army home for unwed mothers, awaiting the birth of her child. The diary she kept during that time is basis for this book. The only true, personal account of such an experience ever published, it describes her stay at the home, the reactions of other women in the same desperate situation, and the peculiar isolation of hiding in a strange city under an assumed name.

HELPING YOUR CHILD SUCCEED IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL by Dr. Marshall C. Jameson

The author, from his experience and knowledge as a teacher for fifteen years and a principal in an elementary school for an additional fifteen years, writes knowingly of the opportunities and responsibilities of parents to help their children in the formative years.

Army Private Dennis G. Hitchens, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin G. Hitchens, 850 B. Sobrato Drive, Campbell, recently completed advance armor training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

His wife, Sharon, lives at 4389 Moran Drive, San Jose.

DOWN UNDER

A task force of U.S. ships has been visiting the "down under" contient of Australia commemorating the battle of the Coral Sea, where, 25 years ago, U.S. and Australian navies turned back a Japanese invasion armada that planned to occupy Port Moresby and then invade Australia.

Airman Apprentice Dennis P. Keough, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Keough of 1173 Long Fellow Ave., Campbell, took part in the celebration there, as a crewman aboard the Seventh Fleet anti-submarine support aircraft carrier USS Bennington.

1 YEAR AGO

In the space of the six years since the last federal census, Campbell has shown a 78% increase in population, according to the recent countywide census, dubbed Countdown 66. Campbell, according to the special census just completed, now has a population of 21,221 to rank eighth among the 16 cities of the county. In 1960 the population of Campbell was 11,863.

Mrs. Edmund G. Brown, wife of the governor, as chairman of the Governor's Advisory Committee on California Beauty, was scheduled to tour the 170-acre Vasona Park today as part of a four-day tour of exceptional projects developed in California.

Pleased with the results of last month's Campbell Clean-Up Crusade which concentrated on improving the Los Gatos Creek area, the City Council's beautification committee plans to recommend that it become an annual event each spring.

5 YEARS AGO

Members of the Campbell Police force closed a total of 1212 cases during the month of April, according to figures released by John D. Morgan, Chief of Police. During the same month in 1961, 781 cases were closed. A total of 1422 activities were investigated during the past month, which averages out over 47 per day for the month.

As Campbell prepared to celebrate its 70th Old Settler's Day, Edna Smith, co-publisher of the Campbell Press from 1912 to 1945, looked back on 50 years of memories here in the Campbell area.

Beverley Miller, a 15-year old Camden High School student has won a four-week trip to the United Nations in New York. The all-expense-paid trip, which begins on June 7, is sponsored by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

15 YEARS AGO

City Council Monday night scheduled a meeting for this afternoon to interview applicants for the position of city accountant, and agreed to negotiate with Mark Thomas Company for the position of city engineer.

At a time when election promises are being repeated at a rapid rate, Albert B. Smith, candidate for county supervisor in the Fifth District, came up with what he believes a new one today. Stating he had not quite lost all of his personal modesty, Smith promised to remove all his election posters, whether elected or not.

In a meeting last week between Campbell City councilmen and Division of Highways officials, it was learned that Campbell can expect about $8,000 in State Gas Tax funds early in August.

FIREARMS

Males between the ages of 10 and 29 account for 40 per cent of firearm fatalities.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE — SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Q. - I understand there has been a change in how long a person must be disabled to get social security payments. What is the change?

A. - Before July 1965, disability insurance benefits could be paid only if the worker's disability was expected to last indefinitely. Now, the law provides that the duration requirement is met if the disabled worker has been or is expected to be under a disability for at least twelve months.

Q. - I am a 58-year-old widow, unable to work. I never worked under Social Security. Can I get payments, under the new lay?

A. -No. To get widow's benefits, you must be at least 60.

Q. -Are people who get disability payments eligible for Medicare?

A. - No. To qualify for Medicare, you must be 65. Disability payments are made to persons under 65.

Q. - My 17-year-old grandson, a high school senior, gets social security benefits on his deceased father's account. He plans to continue on to college. Will I need to re-apply so his benefits won't stop at 18?

A. - No. Benefits may continue without a new application. However, before your grandson reaches 18, you should get in touch with your Social Security Office. The people there will tell you what information is needed to keep his benefits continuing.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

I don't consider myself a Victorian prude, but some of the pornography, smut, and indecent sales literature which is mailed to constituents and forwarded to me in protest is downright offensive. And what is doubly frustrating is that after twelve years of trying to find a legislative means of curbing these peddlers of smut, I haven't been successful.

As a freshmen member of the Post Office and Civil Service Committee fourteen years ago, we attempted to write language which would curb use of the mails for pornographic purposes, but always ran into the constitutional bugaboo of free speech and free press and the civil libertarians' fear of censorship. We did not succeed in finding language which would meet their objections and stop the mail order peddling of smut.

Recently an especially offensive advertisement, offering a medical sex device for sale, was mailed to one of my very respected consitiuents. It was mailed by the "United Surgical Supply" and featured a medical interview with an unnamed "medical doctor."

I sent the material to the Post Office Department which is honestly trying to find means of preventing the mailing of obnoxious material. But, as the General Counsel of the Department frankly stated to me, he faces "a body of decisional law which leaves little room for successful prosecution either under the postal obscenity or fraud laws."

A few years ago, a criminal action was instituted against one Louis Wolff Linetsky, doing business as Medico Sales, which involved similar promotional material. The District Court dismissed the indictment on grounds that the exhibits were not obscene.

The Postal Inspection Service attempted to curb similiar mailings in a case involving Mr. A. Franken of Los Angeles under the criminal postal fraud statute. The Justice Department thought a criminal fraud prosecution was impossible so a proceeding was started under the civil postal fraud statute. But it was held that Franken was not violating the law because the Department had not proven an intent to deceive.

The Supreme Court decision in Reilly v. Pinkus requires that the Post Office Department prove not only that advertising is fraudulent, but also that the promoter intended to deceive postal patrons. The operation of a man's mind in a case like this is a most difficult thing to prove, particularly when the Department is denied the subpoena power to produce evidence regarding intent and in most cases is restrained from cross-examining the respondent when he refuses to testify.

With this body of decisional law, one can see how impossible it is to clearly establish both fraud and the intent to deceive.

I recognize that minority rights must be preserved by the courts, but sometime I hope we can find a constitutional means of paying some attention to the rights of private citizens and particularly their children who should be spared the ugliness of smut and pornography delivered to their door--courtesy of the U.S. Post Office.

Recognition Day luncheons honor teachers and staff

By Sally Howe

Few parents will tell you that they honestly envy their children's teacher their nine months of service. In fact, many will say that they can hardly get through their own three months with their offspring during the summer months.

So, it's kind of nice, somewhere along the line, to say "thanks, teach, you're doing a swell job."

Campbell schools have been saying "thanks" the past couple of weeks and we got in on two "teacher recognition" luncheons and saw one way it's done.

At Campbell School, for the fourth consecutive year, the Home and School Club did the honors. Chairman for the sumptuous repast was Mrs. A.W. Blood BUSY HANDS--Teachers not used to sitting down and enjoying luncheon free from other chores didn't find it hard to enjoy the luncheon given them by appreciative parents during a teacher recognition event at Hamilton School recently.

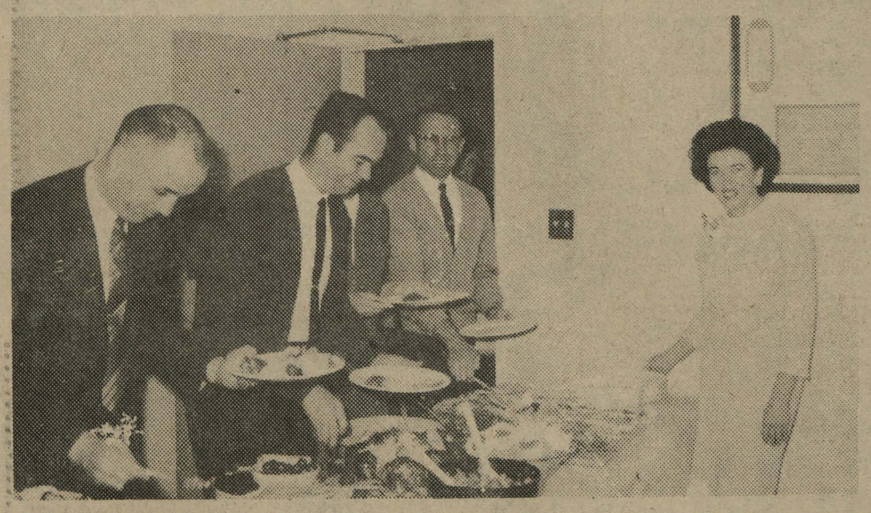
TEACHERS LUNCHEON--Mrs. Richard Strong, Hamilton School Secretary, and faculty members Mrs. Eileen Fikse and Mrs. Renee Lindenman find it difficult to decide on a choice of menu at the luncheon given the school staff by members of the PTA. Luncheon was part of a traditional "teacher's recognition week" held here locally.



MAN-STYLED FEED--Three male members of Campbell School's staff found the teachers recognition luncheon given by the Home and School Club much to their liking. Roy Bosworth, Jim Bryan, and Ed McCauley are served by participating parent Mrs. Carl Branson who turned out to say "thanks" to the school faculty for their efforts in behalf of the school's students.

Surprised teachers and staff arrived in their lunchroom to find bouquets of daisies and ivy decorating their tables. Cups and saucers from a collection owned by Mrs. D.W. Noonkester, a participating parent, gave the tables that certain "touch" that made the luncheon a truly special occasion.

Serving were Mrs. Katie Ross and Mrs. Carl Branson. A menu of pies, salads, cakes, relishes, ham and potatoes was supplied by Mmes. Henner, Georgallis, Davis, Hermlee, White, Peters, Oswald Paulson, Young, Jeffers, Fujishin, Ellis, Hilton, Strange, Wladika, Kennedy, Rogers, Miles, Cargill, Lewis, Ageson, Robertson and Harrison.

HAMILTON SCHOOL

The faculty room at Hamilton School was "a-bloom" with baskets of flowers and a special cake on the table to call attention to the wedding anniversary of the school secretary, Mrs. Richard Strong.

Mrs. Courtland Watson, PTA president, was chairman of the luncheon event. Assisting were Mrs. Alfred DelCarlo, Mrs. Verl Weitzel, Mrs. Rex Jeffers, Mrs. Milton Howe, and Mrs. Joseph Gomes. Poems of appreciation were given the school staff who enjoyed a luncheon of ham, salads, rolls, relishes and dessert.

We love you, teachers.

ELECTED--Joseph Arrigo, vice-president of the Community Bank in San Jose, and a member of the bank's board since the bank was founded in November, 1963, has been elected to the California Bankers Association's executive committee for Santa Clara, Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz counties.

Prior to joining the Community Bank, Arrigo was a long-time officer with Wells Fargo Bank. He came to San Jose as a boy, attended San Jose schools and served in World War II.

WV College stages fine arts festival

Week-long activities marks the first annual West Valley College Fine Arts Festival (May 22-May 27), with a wide variety of programs and exhibits designed for two purposes, according to college officials.

First, it is designed to show the community what is being done by the students and faculty at West Valley College, the achievements that have been accomplished in the diversified arts.

Second, it brings to the college, the students, faculty and the community some distinguished professionals in the arts, who will exemplify the accomplishments that can be achieved in that field.

A program for the balance of the week follows:

Wednesday, May 24--At 8:15 p.m. West Valley College Symphony and West Valley College Brass Ensemble will divide the program. The symphony is directed by Cesare S. Claudio, and the Brass Ensemble and Stage Band is directed by Joe E. Davis.

Thursday, May 25--At 12:30 p.m. Auditorium, The West Valley College Stage Band, repeat performance. At 8:15 p.m., Auditorium, "Back to Mozart" group from San Francisco, directed by Raymond Duste.

Friday, May 26--At 8:15 p.m., Auditorium, lecture by noted art critic Alfred Frankenstein, on "American Art and American Moods."

Saturday, May 27--Second annual Artists Invitational Exhibit, jointly sponsored by the Los Gatos-Saratoga Symphony Society and the College, on the front lawn, from 11 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Judging by Mr. Frankenstein at 12 noon. 7:30 p.m. Twilight "Pops" Concert by the Los Gatos-Saratoga Symphony under the baton of John O'Neill.

Letters to the Editor

LIGHTS ON DAM

Mr. Vierhus:

Would you go Out on the Limb with this? I have mailed this letter to the City Council.

TO THE CAMPBELL CITY COUNCIL:

I'm writing to you because it is your decision that finally puts the planners and Engineers for Campbell to work.

I've wanted to write this to you since we have moved here 10 years ago.

Campbell has one very noticeable beautiful spot, but unnoticed by the planners and the City Council. I should say, a spot that can be really beautiful and noticed by everyone.

I'm speaking of course of the Dam on Camden. The water fall is beautiful, but at night it can't be seen.

What a beautiful sight it would be if Campbell had 3 colored lights on that water fall at night!

It really is a shame to have such a beautiful water fall hidden at night.

It would cost less than a traffic light and what a conversation piece it would make. It would also be a beautiful landmark for Campbell.

Beauty - is light, and color, but mostly when it is directed on something, such as a water fall.

The planners and the City Council have been blind long enough. Planting trees on the banks will in time cover Campbell completely so as the motorist on Hwy. 17 won't even know it's there.

The colored lights shining down on the water fall would be seen by everyone and not forgotten.

There, is your Beauty, Gentlemen, natures beauty made more beautiful by light.

I'm sending a copy of this to the Campbell Press. I hope it will be printed.

Hopefully,
Mrs. C. Yarber

CAMPBELL'S WATERFRONT---The percolation pond area along Los Gatos Creek just off Camden Ave. being developed as a county park was a popular spot last Saturday, one of the hottest days of the year.

Although the park is a long way from being completed, its present meager facilities (and the water) were put to use by many. The above scenes shows the wharf now in place being used as a sun-deck and a diving platform. The banks were also lined with would-be fishermen who, incidentally claimed that their luck was "lousy".

College board authorizes final Saratoga agreement

The Board of Trustees of West Valley College Thursday night followed up on its actions of several months ago by authorizing its secretary, College President Wallace W. Hall, to sign a site approval agreement with the City of Saratoga for development of the new campus in that city.

The action was in line with the "gentlemen's agreement" reached between the City and the college district earlier this year, at the time the college applied for a use permit for development of its 143-acre site in Saratoga.

Since then, the Board was told Thursday, the administrative staff and representatives of the City of Saratoga have been in discussion with the architects on procedures to follow in the best development of the Saratoga campus.

Thursday's action followed the statement that it "is now in the best interest of the college to proceed to obtain the final site approval by the City of Saratoga..."

The Board also gave final approval to a five per cent pay raise for certificated and classified personnel, and gave comparable pay increments to assistant deans, deans and the president of the college.

OTHER ACTIONS

In other actions, the Board:

(1). Amended policies and procedures to include positions of administrative intern and coordinator of community services. These positions have been created since the last revision of the Board's written policies and procedures.

2). Approved financial claims totaling $76,656.33.

3). Accepted a gift from the family of Board Chairman Robert W. Brydon of the volumes of National Geographic Magazine dating back prior to World War I. They were the property of Brydon's late father, A. E. Brydon, who died recently. The gift was the first made specifically to the library to be erected on the Saratoga campus.

4.) Heard a report from Pat Boyle, student president of college YMCA on the group's "Big Brother" project, in which students work with fatherless boys in providing them leadership and campanionship.

5). Took no action, pending further information being made available, on a request from the Santa Clara city attorney's office to join in objections to a proposed trailer park adjacent to the proposed Santa Clara campus of the college.

6.) Heard from Gordon D. Aumack, acting superintendent in the absence of Dr. Hall, that the college had received approval of Federal matching funds totaling $58,012, primarily for science equipment for the college.

7). Accepted the resignations of Miss Ruth Ann Douglas, instructor in science and mathematics, and Miss Sharon Snowden as typist clerk in the Student Personnel Office.

8). Took under study proposed changes in the Board policies and procedures which would provide for leaves for exchange teaching, professional growth and activities, and for extended periods without pay under special circumstances.

Eastfield loses in house-moving plea to council

With regret the City Council informed Karl Marshall, executive director of the Eastfield home at 251 Llewellyn, that the city could not allow the home to move a 15-year old residence from San Jose to Campbell.

The city ordinance specifically prohibits buildings older than 10 years to be brought into the city. The city recently amended the ordinance and inserted the 10-year condition. But, as Mayor Ed Rogers explained, the line had to be drawn some place and the city could not keep amending the ordinance continually.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina had specified that only by amending could the ordinance be changed, as a variance to any ordinance was not valid.

In his covering letter as well as in his oral plea, Marshall said the charitable institution was obtaining the building free of charge and that it was in excellent state of repair. It was needed, he said, to house classrooms on the grounds and for the operation of the day treatment program which is expanding from five to 15 children.

Council members expressed sympathy with Marshall's request and commended the good work that the home has done since its founding in San Jose in 1867.

But, they also pointed out that the house-moving ordinance would always be a problem. Originally it prohibited the moving of any building from outside into the city.

In another action, the council enthusiastically recommended the appointment of Miss Jean Gomes, a native of Campbell and a graduate of the local schools, to the county library commission.

Miss Gomes, daughter of the late Joe Gomes, a member of the first Campbell City Council, holds a bachelor and masters degree from San Jose State and has been a teacher in the Milpitas schools system for the past eight years.

The program, called "A Sentimental Journey with Donald Voorhees," will be at 8:30 p.m. in the San Jose Civic Auditorium. Since proceeds from the program will go toward underwriting the symphony's regular season, I hope you'll be able to attend and help support our valley's fine symphony program. Tickets are available at Sherman Clay box offices in San Jose and Santa Clara.

I'm sure you'll agree, moving out of town is a big job. Taking care of those hundred-and-one little details can get pretty hectic.

And that's why we have developed a plan that will make any out of town move a whole lot easier. We call it the Easy Move Plan. Here's how it works: with just one call to our Campbell Business Office, we'll stop your phone service here and start it there. It doesn't matter whether you're moving to a nearby town or across the country —the Easy Move Plan is effective throughout the Bell System.

Last thing out, first thing in—I'm sure you'll find it saves you time and energy to always have a phone within reach. To get the Easy Move Plan, just call your Service Representative. She'll take care of everything.

Would you believe it actually happened? A policeman spotted a man carrying a pay phone under his arm. When asked if he was expecting a call, the man turned and ran. The officer gave chase, caught the man, and booked him on suspicion of burglary. Once behind bars, the culprit finally made his call—to his lawyer!
